The Orleans Affordable Housing Trust Fund Board requests CPA funding in the amount of $500,000 to fulfill its mission to increase affordable and community housing in the town. CPA funding is the critical component of funding that demonstrates local commitment to housing development and is a key scoring metric for state and regional housing grants. Community Preservation funding has been conveyed to the control of the Trust on an annual basis since fiscal year 2020. This has allowed the Trust to plan for and move forward with several large affordable housing developments.
